South-Carolina GAZETTE.

LONDON, March 1.

BY ſome letters which came from India by the laſt ſhips, it appears that the Gin-ſeng of America, which has been carried from hence to the Indies, proves, in the opinion of the Chineſe themſelves, to be the very ſame root which they ſo much eſteem, and have hitherto ſold at ſo great a price.

March 3 From Spain we have advice of the death of M. Macanas, aged 85. This gentleman aſſiſted at the conferences at Breda as miniſter from Spain; but, having written againſt the inquiſition, was on his return baniſhed to Corunna, where he ended his days on the 14th paſt. He has left all his works, amounting to 200 volumes, moſt of them in folio, written with his own hand, to the king of Spain.

According to ſome private advices from Paris, the late rumour of the death of a certain young adventurer, who made a great noiſe in the world ſome years ago, may be explained by this paſſage of St. Paul's (ſuppoſing the report ſpread by greater men than common news-mongers) 'Thou fool, that which thou ſoweſt is not quickened, except it die.'

March 6. From Madrid we hear, that M. Marſhal, who has lately concluded a treaty of commerce between that court and the king of Pruſſia, is going with a commiſſion of the ſame kind to Genoa, Venice, and Naples.

March 8. This day his Majeſty went to the houſe of peers, and ſigned the land-tax, mutiny and deſertion, ſalt, and game bills, and ſeveral private bills.

March 24. It is ſaid that his Pruſſian majeſty having ſome reaſon to keep fair with the Empreſs queen, the mediation of the court of Vienna will be accepted for adjuſting the diſpute in relation to the Sileſia loan.

The affair that was debated in the houſe of peers on thurſday, we hear, paſs'd in the negative by a great majority.

A bill is ordered into parliament to prevent the fraudulent importation of cambricks and French lawns.

The lords of the admiralty have appointed Capt. Charles Holmes to be commander of the Anſon man of war at Portſmouth, which ſhip is order'd to be mann'd and got ready for ſea with all expedition.

The Royal Ann, (building at Woolwich) the largeſt ſhip in the navy, is deck'd, and ordered to be finiſhed with all convenient ſpeed.

March 27. There are letters from Madrid which intimate, that, notwithſtanding what has been reported, Mr. Marſhal, the Pruſſian agent, is on his return to Berlin, without having ſucceeded in his commiſſion relating to commerce.

The ſame letters adviſe, that the French ambaſſador had not as yet been able to obtain reſtitution of the privileges which the French formerly enjoyed in Spain.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that all the commandants of the king's troops have received orders to get their reſpective corps complete by the beginning of May, and the intendants of the provinces are enjoined to proceed forthwith to levy the militia.

March 29. There is an account from Africa, that two men of war, and ſeveral ſmall ſloops were on the coaſt of Guiney to protect the Britiſh trade in thoſe parts.

We hear, that the bill for permitting Iriſh wool and woollen, or Bay yarn to be imported into any port in Great-Britain, has paſſed the houſe of commons.

The lords of the admiralty have been pleaſed to appoint Julian Legge, Eſq; to be captain of his majeſty's ſhip the Shoreham, which is to carry Governor Thomas to his government of the Leeward-Iſlands.

We hear that an order is ſent down to the north of England for ſome regiments there to march ſouthward, and we hear they are to be replaced by ſome regiments from other parts of England.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 12.

The South Carolina Society, having read their CHARTER laſt Tueſday, in a full Meeting, it was agreed, that a particular Time ſhould be appointed for all the Members to dine together, and ſpend the Remainder of the Day in Teſtimonies of Gratitude and Demonſtrations of Joy: They accordingly met, and dined, at Mr Poinſett's Yeſterday; and after Dinner drank the Healths of His Majeſty, the Prince of Wales, the reſt of the Royal Family, the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of this Province, the Agent in Great-Britain, and ſome other loyal and favourite Toaſts, the Guns of the Shipping in the Harbour firing at every Health, and Drums beating, &c. The whole day was ſpent by them in the utmoſt Harmony, and moſt agreeable manner; and 'tis impoſſible to expreſs the Joy that has appeared in the Countenance of every Member of that Society, ſince his Majeſty has been ſo graciouſly pleaſed to approve their charitable and laudable Foundation.

The Creek Indians having ended their Talks, received Preſents, &c. ſet out laſt Tueſday, on their return for their Country, and that Night reach'd Dorcheſter, where (almoſt in the Town) a young Fellow, Son to the King, was ſhot, and his Scalp with part of his Scull carried away. An expreſs being ſent to Town with this Account, the Governor ſet out for Dorcheſter on Wedneſday Morning, attended by the Town Troop of Horſe, and a Detachment from the Independent Companies; but notwithſtanding the moſt diligent Inquiry has been made, nothing more, we hear, could be diſcovered, than that the young Creek muſt have been kill'd by an Indian (we ſuppoſe a Northern Indian) the uſual Token being left near the dead Body' i e an Eagle's Feather and ſome Beads.—We are told, the Creek Indians were well pleaſed with his Excellency's Appearance, and that they afterwards proceeded on their Journey thoro'ly ſatisfied.
